Chopstix: A Dining Collection by Paola Navone

JANUS et Cie introduces the unique Chopstix collection, designed by prolific architect and designer Paola Navone. Balancing Navone's signature avant-garde vision and effortless Italian style, the collection mixes color, texture, and materials to create a unified yet adventurous look.

The handwoven olefin rope armchair and side chair offer a tactile, enveloping seat and come in three colors: Aubergine, Peacock, and Pepper. Navone's collaborations with JANUS et Cie incorporate her singular design perspective with materials and construction traditions from around the world. The "macro weaving" motif of the Chopstix collection creates a playful dialogue between ancient weaving techniques and contemporary allure.

The unusual and arresting configuration of the table legs inspires the Chopstix collection's name. A stunning terrazzo stone top in the lighter Luce Bianca Grande or darker Grigio Tetra solidify the dining tables' appeal. With the Chopstix collection, Navone recreates the convivial gathering experience of her Mediterranean culture. Choose from an oval dining table or an asymmetrical module shape—or pair two of the modular tables to form one long, elegant dining surface.

From setting the ambiance of a boutique hotel to serving as the centerpiece of your private dining veranda, the Chopstix collection's playful shapes and effortless comfort elevate the "al fresco" experience.

Chopstix collection includes:

- Side Chair
- Armchair
- Dining Table Oval 221
- Dining Table Module 219

Chopstix finishes:

- Aubergine
- Peacock
